

Press Release for Singapore MIND Conference

In conjunction with Intelligence Day commemorated by national Mensa chapters worldwide, Mensa Singapore will be organizing the inaugural Singapore Mensa Intelligence Day Conference (Singapore MIND Conference) on 1 October 2011.

The purpose of the conference is to promote the identification and fostering of human intelligence through the sharing of ideas and initiatives. We invite prominent academics, policy-makers, and other community leaders to present their views on relevant topics of interest, and to engage the public in meaningful debate on current pressing concerns.

The theme for this year's conference is "Unconventional Intelligences".

About Mensa Singapore

Mensa “provides a forum for intellectual exchange among members. Its activities include the exchange of ideas by lectures, discussions, journals, special-interest groups, and local, regional, national, and international gatherings; the investigations of members’ opinions and attitudes; and assistance to researchers, inside and outside Mensa in projects dealing with intelligence or Mensa.” [Mensa Constitution]

Mensa has three stated purposes:

1. to identify and foster human intelligence for the benefit of humanity;
2. to encourage research in the nature, characteristics and uses of intelligence; and
3. to promote stimulating intellectual and social opportunities for its members.

Mensa Singapore was registered in 1989 and is recognized by Mensa International to be one of only twenty countries worldwide to qualify for full National Mensa status. There are currently over 3,000 Mensans in Singapore, and growing.
